To strengthen our dedicated team in the research department Institute for Information Systems in Saarbrücken we are looking for a

Research Assistant (m/f/d)
(To assist in the PROMISE project - process optimization and status monitoring at one of the largest automotive manufacturers)

The Institute for Information Systems at the DFKI employs more than 60 people in the field of applied research under the scientific supervision of Prof. Dr. Peter Loos. The research and teaching comprises of information and process management in industry, services and administration. Of particular importance is the transfer of technology from science to practice.

Your tasks:

- Support over the entire project period (getting to know the industry partner, requirements analysis and system architecture, literature research, development of a prototype, evaluation)

Your qualifications:

- Study of Business Informatics/Computer Science
- Good knowledge of the german and english language
- A minimum of 4 semesters remaining in Saarbrücken
- Motivation, independence and fun in acquiring new knowledge

Your benefits:

- Flexible work hours and nice colleagues
- An innovative, agile and professional work environment at one of the leading locations for computer science in Germany.

We look forward to receiving your informative application documents and your earliest possible starting date up to 01.12.2019.

Please contact Lea Mayer for further information and send your application via E-Mail to Lea.Mayer@dfki.de