To strengthen our dedicated team in the research department Institute for Information Systems in Saarbrücken we are looking for a

Student assistant (m/f/d)

(in support of the consulting workshops)

The Institute for Information Systems at the DFKI employs more than 60 people in the field of applied research under the scientific supervision of Prof. Dr. Peter Loos. The research and teaching comprises of information and process management in industry, services and administration. Of particular importance is the transfer of technology from science to practice.

Your tasks:

- Supporting the course Consulting
- To socialise with enterprises
- Administrative and organizational tasks
- Preparation and postprocessing the workshops
- Website Maintenance

Our skills:

- Sociableness
- To be capable of independent work and confident manner
- Willingness to work on side

Your benefits:

- Challenging and interesting tasks
- Insights into the field of business consultants
- Opportunity to extend the employment over several semester

We look forward to receiving your informative application documents and your earliest possible starting date up to 31.10.2019.

Please send your application via E-Mail to

Lea Mayer (Lea.Mayer@dfki.de) and

Sebastian Stephan (Sebastian.Stephan@dfki.de)